

Wright Leadership® Development

Using a measurable leadership development approach based on real-world experience that increases productivity and reduces turnover and absenteeism, I mentor companies looking to increase profitability. The Wright Leadership Program® facilitates authentic, transformational leadership to create a clear vision and strategy, resulting in a collaborative organizational culture.

This course encompasses ownership leadership, authentic and transformational leadership style, strategic leadership, and upper-echelon composition and effectiveness into one holistic program to drive your organization forward.

This course will enable you to develop a more agile team with a vision focused on the organization's future success.

An effective leadership team is also one that continuously improves its performance. Team members regularly reflect on their work and openly identify areas for improvement.
